MYMO cute kid's mobile

Soon you'll be able to set up wireless hotspots in utero and embed mobile phones directly into the ear canal at birth. In the meantime, however, there's the £60 MYMO mobile phone, made especially for children between the ages of 4 and 8.

The bright coloured plastic mobile has been designed to appeal to children and, with just 3 buttons controlling all the functions, it should be easy enough for adults to work out how to use it before handing it over to their far more tech-savvy offspring.

In fact, we're finding the bright colours, cute ears and three-button design pretty appealing to us. It only holds 5 phone numbers (so kids will be limited in who they can call), which would be perfect for us on a night out: 2 best friends, cab, takeaway and flatmate for when we lose our keys.
